PARIS TRAINS COLLIDE; TUBE HIDES SCORES OF THE SLAIN

Terrible Collision Followed By Burning Of The Crowded Cars

USE GAS MASKS

Rescuers Play Fire Hose To Stop Flames And Save Passengers

(Reuter's Service)

Paris, Oct. 5.—The suburban tunnel at Les Batignolles today was the scene of an awful collision between two passenger trains, followed by a fire. A train from Paris to Versailles crowded with home-going workers entered the tunnel when, owing to the breaking of a coupling, the driver stopped and endeavored to adjust the trouble.

Meantime, another train from Paris crashed into the rear of the first train, the impact of the crash causing the gas cylinders to explode and the Versailles coaches burst into flames.

The passengers in the front of the train were unhurt. They traversed the tunnel and gained egress at Batignolles Station, when rescue work was started.

The tunnel was filled with smoke and gas fumes, which necessitated the firemen using masks. The big hoses were put into action effectively and flooded the burning carriages.

Up to the present 31 bodies have been recovered. Eighteen persons were seriously injured and 50 slightly injured. It is feared that there are further victims as 17 of the carriages which were in flames have not yet been searched.

BRITISH STAND IN CONFERENCE IS IN QUESTION

(Reuter's Service)

New York, Oct. 5.—The New York Tribune, discussing the Disarmament Conference, declares that more depends on Great Britain's attitude than on that of any country except Japan, and the temptation to cling to tried ways in which Britain's success has been striking is great.

The journal says that a narrow group in high places is disposed to contend that, if the old system were abandoned and the open door substituted in China, the Japanese and Americans would soon step into Britain's place.

The paper expresses the opinion that the world now needs a Gladstonian and not a Disraelian policy.

L. W. LUYT SUES ASIA BANK; ASKS SUM OF £26,200

Basis Of Action Is Exchange Deals On Contracts Made In 1920

Mr. Leopold William Luyt, attorney, yesterday filed suit in the United States Court for China against the Asia Banking Corporation for £16,200 sterling, alleged to be due him as the result of certain contracts for the buying and selling of exchange.

Mr. Luyt, through his attorney Mr P. W. Goldring claims that the Asia Banking Corporation should refund him the sum of 3,600 pounds sterling with interest at 4 percent calculated from May 29, 1920 to November 29, 1920, the sum of £3,170. 17. 10. with interest at 8 percent calculated from September 7, to date of payment, and £9,529. 13. 2 being the equivalent of Shanghai Taels 46,204 at an exchange of 4-1⅛ with interest at 8 percent from December, 31, 1920 being the profit which he alleges accrued as the result of the transactions in dispute.

On May 29, 1920, Mr. Luyt alleges he deposited £3,600 for a period of six months at 4 percent interest. On June 15, 16, and 17, 1920 he alleges he entered into four written contracts for the sale and purchase of exchange which matured on December 31. On September 7, Mr. Luyt claims to have entered into a verbal agreement with Mr Clair, representing the bank, where by it was agreed that in consideration of the bank extending the time limit on the four contracts from September 30 to December 31 at a difference of one farthing in the rate stipulated Mr. Luyt should deposit the further sum of £3,170. 17. 10 as security.

On September 7, 1920 further contracts were entered into, all of which were lived up to by Mr. Luyt the complaint declares.

Mr. Luyt left for England on September 25, 1920, and alleges that during his absence the bank wrongfully and unlawfully closed his accounts, violating the contract agreements, and appropriated his desposits to its own use and benefit. Mr. Luyt now claims that all contracts have matured and all conditions have been fulfilled, entitling him to receive from the bank a refund of the £16,200 sued for.

GHANDI URGES PASSIVITY AND QUITTING JOBS

(Reuter's Service)

Bombay, October 5.—Forty-eight Non-Co-operation leaders, headed by Mr. Gandhi, have issued a manifesto on the subject of the arrest of the Ali brothers, asserting the right of everyone to express his opinion without restraint.

Regarding the propriety of citizens serving the Government, the manifesto expresses the opinion that the duty of every Indian civilian or soldier is to sever connection with the Government, which is contrary to national dignity, and to find other means of livelihood.

Mr. Gandhi has written a letter to the Bombay Chronicle appealing to the people to remain peaceful and to refrain from strikes in the eventuality of his arrest.

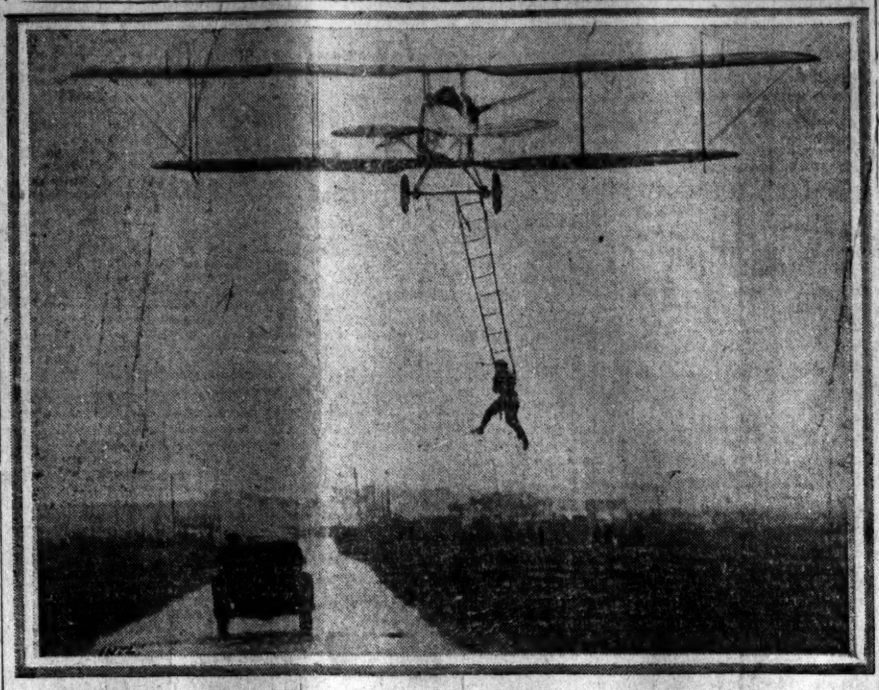
Dares Death 17 Times To Climb From Auto To Aeroplane But Death Conquers Brave Girl At Last



New York, Oct. 5.—The film actress, Miss Madeline Davis, met with a sensational death today on the beach at Long Branch. In the presence of a crowd she was carrying out a stunt for which she was noted, namely, climbing from a motor-car going at full speed on to an aeroplane overhead. She caught the rope to the rope-ladder from the aeroplane but, as the aeroplane rose, she relinquished her hold and fell 15 feet, and was fatally injured.

The above photograph which arrived in the last mail shows this intrepid actress practicising the stunt that finally caused her fatal injuries. When the picture was taken she had made the jump seventeen times and while she knew the danger, familiarity had bred contempt which, in this case spelled death.

The fall of fifteen feet seems slight when account is taken of the aviators who have come out alive after crashing from hundreds of feet elevations, but may be explained by her fall being unbroken by canvas wings or struts of aeroplanes.

When her hands slipped from the lower rung of the ladder, the speed of the plane doubtless contributed to her death.

KU KLUX KLAN BARES TEETH TO U. S. OFFICIALS

(Reuter's Service)

New York, Oct. 5.—The decision of Congress to investigate the activities of the Ku Klux Klan has led to an amazing outburst by adherents of the Klan against the forces of law and order.

Members of the Senate and the House of Representatives who dared to denounce the "invisible government" report that they are daily receiving dozens of abusive and threatening letters.

Even the Attorney-General has not been immune from these attentions. Sessions Judge Beaumont of Texas, in demanding true bills on a charge of murder against the entire membership of the local Klan, said there were members of the Klan in court who had threatened to get him but he defied them. If any of them acted suspiciously in court he would kill them immediately.

DECORATE WOOD AND FORBES WITH JAPANESE ORDER

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Tokio, Oct. 6.—General Wood and Mr. Cameron Forbes have been decorated with the Order of the Rising Sun, first class, and other members of their party with lower orders.

At a banquet given in his honor by the Japan-America Society, General Wood stated:

"The loose and foolish talk about trouble between Japan and America is nonsense. It would be a terrible reflection on modern civilisation if two great peoples like Japan and America were unable to sit round a table and settle all, or nearly all, their difficulties.

"We are unable to hide the fact that great issues may arise that may challenge all our will and diplomacy to solve, but there is nothing in the present situation between Japan and America to justify even the suspicion of such an issue."

General Wood expressed the hope that the flags of the two nations which had stood together during the Great War for fair dealing and respect of the rights of the smaller nations, would always be found on the side of Justice and Right.

All Nations Here Follow Flag Of The Auctioneer

By Elsie McCormick

If you ever followed the flag of an auctioneer into a house at home, you have probably found a faint reminiscence of wax tapers and flowers on the atmosphere, a confused interior, a number of in-laws sitting in corners and remarking that Nettie had no business to sell the brass jardiniere, as it had been in the family fifteen years before she married George. In addition there is usually a group of neighbors engaged in covertly spotting out worn places in the brocade and wondering if she'll have sense enough not to buy oil-stocks with the insurance money.

Calling in an auctioneer at home presupposes a family cataclysm. The red-bordered flag flying from a downstairs window probably implies that the husband either departed by the front door carried by six close friends or by the back door carrying a suitcase. It means that the wife couldn't get the hang of the gas-range or that the judge wouldn't grant probation, or any one of half a hundred calamities that might befall in the modern social order.

In Shanghai, however, the auctioneer is as well-known to most households as an opened sardine can is to the family cat. The fact that most of the population sleeps with steamer schedules under its pillow is accountable for the popular dislike of investing in more than a minimum in household effects. Shanghai's residents are as permanent as a coat of powder on a warm evening, and families about to embark are continually calling in the man with the hammer and the loud voice to dispose of their home-side garnishings.

SOUVENIRS? YES, PERHAPS

A glimpse into Shanghai's auction rooms reveals as strange a collection of articles as ever existed since the Goths and Visigoths carried off most of Europe in their iron-tired carts, thus inaugurating the souvenir habit. We grant the saleability of a red lacquer screen, but just who is in the market for a three-wheeled baby carriage? Anybody might look with longing on a brass-bound Korean chest, but who is interested in a vacuum cleaner with several wound stripes and every prospect of becoming a permanent invalid?

In one of Shanghai's auction establishments we saw an outer show room with several articles that would do credit to a museum and an inside room that suggested a bomb explosion in a five, ten, fifteen cent store. Job-lots consisting of such combinations as one hair-brush, one worn leather hand-bag and a French novel were being disposed of to avoid gentlemen from Peking Road junk-shops, who bargained largely by the finger method popular on the New York curb market. Stationed high above the crowd like the preacher in a cathedral pulpit or an English justice in court was the foreign auctioneer, the rise and fall of his hammer deciding the ownership of every article from a doll's house to a test-tube. On either side of him, a few steps lower down, were two Chinese assistants who pointed at the various bargainers like an evangelist indicating the unsaved.

WHERE SURPLUS GOES

It happened to be an off-day in the auction rooms. Few foreigners are attracted by the disposal of the pitiful possessions of Russian refugees and other indigents that goes on constantly before an audience of Chinese dealers. Furniture and clothing are the chief drawing-cards for the foreigners, and the sale of household effects brings missionaries about to depart from the interior, young women with suspiciously bright wedding rings, and bachelors trying to furnish up an apartment with a surplus left over to meet motor-car chits.

Woman's reputation for thrift in managing the household budget suffers heavy casualties in an auction room. Two of the leading auctioneers in the city agree that women are the maddest and most reckless bidders that ever draw soft-pedalled proganity from the gentleman on the rostum. Men are relatively conservative, but pit two women against each other in an auction room and the bids promptly climb a step-ladder into space. If not stopped by a conscientious auctioneer, the figure will soon reach triple

NO QUESTION OF LEASEHOLD AFTER CHINA ENTERED WAR AGAINST GERMANY, IS REPLY

Japanese Pretentions To Ownership Of Former Concessions Nullified By Expiration Due To China's Belligerency, Says Foreign Office

BY JOSEF W. HALL
(Staff Wire To The China Press)

Peking, October 6 (5:50 p.m.)—The foreign office memorandum replying to the Japanese note regarding negotiations in the Shantung Question was transmitted to the Japanese Legation last night, copies being supplied other legations late this afternoon. The memo in the sense that it refutes the Japanese proposals point by point may be construed to constitute "negotiations", but the spirit, however, is distinctly non compromising.

Rather it maintains China's position in consistent fashion. The introduction points out that Japan's bases for negotiation are either highly objectionable to the Chinese people or imply premises which China is not ready to admit. And that among Japan's many vague declarations there are none which are fundamentally acceptable.

The concluding words of the memo state China's view that such a marked difference between two nations long might remain unsettled so that she therefore reserves to herself the freedom of seeking a solution wherever suitable opportunity may present itself.

This, being interpreted, means that China will continue these discussions with Japan, although she has little confidence therein, provided such discussion does not hinder her from placing the matter before the Washington Conference or the League of Nations.

The Japanese officials state that they are undecided whether the reply is a refusal or an acceptance to negotiate, but the general opinion is that it indicates China's intention to appeal to the Washington Conference for adjudication of the whole matter.

American officials state that the position of the United States merely is that of a witness to a Sino-Japanese discussion regarding a matter that does not directly concern herself, and therefore has no comment or advice.

The general opinion of all those interested is that the Shantung question will not be brought up directly at the Washington Conference.

The feeling among those who have studied the Shantung question is that China's answer might have been more conciliatory. She might have offered to recognise Tsingtao as an international settlement and her refusal to recognise the foreign interests vested during the Japanese regime is considered absurd. These things exist as faits accompli, they say, and cannot be changed. It is believed that no further advances will be made by Japan before the Conference and that she will hold that the offer to negotiate manifests her good faith.

DECRY NEGOTIATIONS

(China Press Correspondence)

Peking, Oct. 3.—Direct negotiations with Japan upon the Shantung Question have been vigorously denounced by the United Association of the various public bodies in Peking, formed for the discussion of foreign relations. It was resolved that China should outline in a statement sent, not to Japan, but to the Powers in general, the terms upon which she will negotiate. More than a thousand people were present at this meeting which was held at Central Park, and forty-one organisations were represented.

The meeting was presided over by Mr. Tsai Yuan-pei, Chancellor of the National University. The first question to come up was the Shantung matter and it was unanimously decided to oppose direct negotiations with Japan and to urge the Chinese Government to make a statement of its desires that should be published and forwarded to the Powers.

It was also decided that, with regard to the proposals of having a National Conference in Shanghai, at which would be represented all the various foreign relation societies of the country, preparations for such a conference should be pushed on vigorously.

Delegates were also elected to interview the minister of foreign affairs concerning the position of the Chinese Government upon the Shantung memorandum, as it was felt that the answer given to the delegates by Mr. W. W. Yen on September 26 was not satisfactory. The delegates elected were Mr. Tsai Yuan-pei, Mr. Wang Chio-hsiang, chairman of the senate of the Old Parliament, and Mr. Chang Yao-tseng, former minister of justice. These men will meet at Central Park at three o'clock this afternoon before calling upon Dr. W. W. Yen.

WANG URGES REPLY

Peking, Oct. 4.—Mr. C. T. Wang, one of the delegates from China to the peace conference at Paris, has declared that he believes that it would be wise if China should send to the Japanese Government a note containing the terms upon which it is willing to enter into negotiations for the return of Shantung. Mr. Wang advocated this in a speech before the Society for the Study of Pacific Problems in Shanghai.

Mr. Wang felt that China could not, in any decency, return unanswered, as had been so freely advocated, the memorandum handed by Mr. Obata to the Chinese Government. Such action, he said, would be possible under the rules of diplomatic courtesy only if diplomatic relations had been broken off between China and Japan. Since nothing of the kind has been done, and since Japan has submitted proposals to form a basis of negotiations on the Shantung question, he felt that China should outline in detail the terms upon which she would be willing to receive back Shantung, and hand them to the Japanese Government.

REPLY IS DISCUSSED

Peking, Oct. 3.—Reports are conflicting as to whether the Chinese reply to the Japanese memorandum of September 7 has been passed at the Cabinet meeting. One report emanating from diplomatic circles says that it has been passed and that the Ministry of Foreign Affairs is now engaged in revising the wording. According to this report the note has been approved by the President and the Premier. Another report declares that the Chinese reply may be regarded as a counter proposal to the Japanese memorandum, as it rejects not the items of the Japanese note, but the principles upon which they are based.

Worst Flood In Century Dooms Thousands To Death

By H. W. McCutchin

(China Press Correspondence)

Suchien, Kiangsu, Sept. 30.—It has been many years since this section of country experienced a summer as wet as the one just past. Sometimes the rain continued through several days and nights, almost without interruption. Many houses fell down, especially heavy losses occurring among the houses with mud walls.

A short while ago a school house in a town near here collapsed, injuring some 17 pupils rather badly, and slightly injuring several more. One boy died soon after, as a result of his injuries. Large numbers of people have been killed or injured by the collapsing of their homes. Many mud walls around towns have fallen, leaving the towns more exposed to attacks of robbers.

In districts farther south, the conditions are worse than at Suchien. Not long ago your correspondent came up the Grand Canal from Chinkiang to Suchien. The trip from Chinkiang to Gaoyu is almost impossible except when the wind happens to be favorable.

Steam launches are not allowed to run on account of the high water. The theory is that the launches make waves which endanger the banks when the water is high. When the water is low enough for the launches to start, it will soon become so low that they cannot run at all. Such is the grandeur of the Grand Canal.

Just now there is no scarcity of water, but it is very difficult for houseboats to go up the stream, because in many places the towpath is under water, or washed away completely. For some days we made 40 li per day, but one day we made only 20 li. The 400 li from Chinkiang to Tsingkiangpu required 8 days of hard work. When the wind comes from the west, large waves run from the lakes into the canal, making it a very dangerous place for houseboats. Many cities east of the canal have narrowly escaped destruction within the past few weeks.

Much damage has been done in the rice-growing districts below Tsingkiangpu. Some of the country east of the canal is flooded by the opening of outlets in the east bank of the canal. But the worst place we have seen this year is west of the canal, north of Baoying. This section of country has the Grand Canal on the east and north, and some large lakes on the west and south.

NO FLOOD IN CENTURY

In ordinary years this is good rice land; the inhabitants say that it has not been overflowed in more than 100 years, until this year. On Sept. 2 the dykes of the lakes broke and let the water loose upon this land. The people quickly got into boats with their belongings and went to the canal bank or to the lake bank.

For 60 li north from Baoying, every foot of the canal bank is occupied by these refugees, with their miscellaneous collection of stuff which they saved from their homes. Baskets, cats, cornstalks, pigs, mats, boxes, cows, beds, flails, water buffaloes, pots, donkeys, jars, innumerable dogs, still more innumerable children, all are crowded up together on that canal bank in the greatest confusion.

A little rice was saved from the water, some of it being cut after the water came but before it was too deep to wade. Various estimates were given as to the amount of rice saved, but it cannot be more than a small fraction of the total crop.

When we came there, we walked on the bank for several li and talked with the people. Most of them had not yet had time to put up the little mat huts in which they must live for months to come. Some were trying to prop up one or two mats with sticks of wood, to make a shelter under which they could sleep at night. When we asked how soon they expected to be able to return to their land and begin rebuilding their homes, some said they hoped to go back in January, while others said it would probably be March.

IN DESPERATE PLIGHT

Truly these people are in a desperate condition. They cannot even gather grass roots and leaves of trees, which our people in the north country eat in famine times. All they can do is to eat what little they have brought with them, and then starve to death. There is not even room to bury the dead on dry land. There must be at least several thousand families gathered on that section of canal bank, varying in width from 30 to 50 feet, only a few feet above water, and about 60 li long.

We have not yet been able to make an accurate estimate of the damage to crops in the Suchien District, but the losses have been quite serious. Flour is now 20 percent higher, and rice 40 percent higher, than at this time last year.

For some months in the spring and summer, this entire section of country, except the cities and larger towns, was at the mercy of the robbers. These gentlemen did not hesitate to attack villages at any hour of the day or night. If any village resisted, and was captured later, woe to the inhabitants.

Thousands of citizens have been killed, wounded, or kidnapped during the past few months. Most of the time the roads are considered very dangerous. Within the past month, the canal between Tsingkiangpu and Suchien has been opened up so that boats may travel with comparative safety.

Gen. Bei Bao-shan, of Haichow, has had his headquarters at Suchien for two months, and he has done good work in clearing the canal. He has also improved the conditions in the nearby districts, but robbers are still plying their trade within 25 or 30 miles of this city.

103 HEADS DECK BRIDGE

Gen. Ma has also been busy, from his headquarters at Tsingkiangpu. A few weeks ago he artistically decorated the drawbridge at Djunghsing with the heads of 103 robbers whom he had captured in one village. It would be interesting to know how many hundreds, perhaps thousands, of robbers have been killed in North Kiangsu this year.

Kidnapping is now the principal occupation of the robbers, the old methods are too slow and offer too little profit compared with kidnapping. Some of the victims are not very badly treated, but many of them suffer untold agonies, and considerable numbers of them are killed before arrangements can be made to ransom them.

Three months ago a few robbers quietly slipped into the city of Suchien, inside the mud wall, went to the home of an 18 year old boy during the night, pulled him out of bed and carried him off into the country. After much discussion and impossible demands, the boy's father succeeded in making an agreement whereby he was to pay a $2,000 ransom. The money was paid more than two months ago, but the boy is still missing, and we feel sure that he is dead. Such cases are not very common.

The present conditions would seem to indicate that next year will be even worse than this, if such a thing is possible.

been so high since the twenty-fifth year of Chien Ling about 150 years ago."

West of the Grand Canal from Saopeh of Whai are for 80 miles as far as the eye can reach no land can be seen. Along the west bank of the Grand Canal for 25 miles north of the city of Kaoyu is a continuous line of shelters and sheds. Thousands are camping in these mat sheds with their families, oxen, dogs, cats etc. On the east bank there are 4 breaks between Saopeh and Hsuen Niu miao, 3 large breaks below Kooyin.

The east country is flooded over as far as Yencheng Tieu Tai and the sea. The floods came before the rice could be harvested and in many places a fine crop is totally submerged. The east canal banks above the city are barely holding the water and heavy west winds are beating the lake waters upon dangerously weak banks.

The waters of the Hungtze lake have broken the dykes in several places and hundreds were drowned, as the break took place at night.

North of this city another break in the east bank of the Grand Canal has destroyed crops over a large area though fortunately the loss of life was small. All low ground is flooded and the high ground crops are almost a failure. There is likelihood of famine and certainly a hard year for the people, as in addition the price of foodstuffs is abnormally high. Rice is $12 a picul and wheat and maize proportionately increased.

Robbers after terrifying the countryside for weeks have been scattered and it is reported that many have been killed, short shrift is given to any suspicious characters. Government help and special protection must be given this end of the province this year or many thousands will die. A careful inquiry is being made of the fall crops, and grain stores available.

It does not freeze and sustains short circuits which would destroy other accumulators.

Adml. Strauss Now Looking Into The Yangtsze Problem

(Evening Star Service)

Hankow, Oct. 3.—The United States Destroyer Alden, which came to anchor in the port before nightfall Saturday, brought to Hankow for the second time this year, Admiral Strauss, Commander-in-Chief of the Asiatic Fleet of the U. S. Navy, and Commander F. F. Rogers, Fleet Intelligence Officer.

Coming to this section of the Yangtze at the height of troublous times on the upper stretches of this river, Admiral Strauss is likely to make a considerable stay in the port of Hankow, which has been made the headquarters of the Yangtze Patrol of the Asiatic Fleet.

Rear Admiral W. H. G. Bullard, the newly appointed Commander of the Yangtze Patrol, is expected in Hankow shortly, and Commander-in-Chief Strauss will probably wait in Hankow for his arrival. Rear Admiral Bullard and his staff will be permanently quartered in this port.

Broker's Mafoo Is Mulcted $20 Fine

A mafoo who doubtless for many years had zipped with joyous immunity about the streets of the Settlement, adding to the gray hairs of the pedestrian population—he being pilot to a broker's chariot—had his complacency modified $20 worth yesterday when the Special Traffic Court slapped on a fine of that figure following a conviction of reckless driving on Kiangse Road.

The Traffic Court, presided over by Assessor Allman and Magistrate Tsang, heard twenty-one cases involving motor cars in addition to the lone carriage case. Most of the charges were for minor infringements of the traffic regulations and the highest fine assessed was one of $35 imposed on a chauffeur for improperly driving a machine on Thibet Road on September 16.

A chauffeur who ran into a ricsha occupied by Mr. Howard on Avenue Foch on the evening of September 22, damaging the ricsha and injuring the coolie, was fined $15.

Adm. Bullard To Arrive On The Cruiser New Orleans

Admiral W. H. G. Bullard, who will command the Yangtsze patrol of the American navy, will arrive in Shanghai on the cruiser New Orleans, the vessel that is taking Major-General Leonard Wood back to the Philippines from Japan.

Admiral Bullard's flagship on the patrol will be a refitted millionaire's yacht, the Isabel, which is now being commissioned at the Philadelphia navy yard.

The Isabel was built at Bath, Maine, for John Willys, American automobile manufacturer, and was requisitioned by the navy at the outbreak of the war. It has a speed of twenty-nine knots and during the war acted as a navy destroyer.

The ship will join the Yangtze patrol and operate from the mouth of the river to Ichang. The Palos and Monocacy, built especially for river work, will continue the patrol work from Ichang to Suifen, 2,000 miles inland.

TERRIBLE CATASTROPHE

Paris, Oct. 5.—M. Kerensky declares that the Russian famine involves 30,000,000 people and that next spring there will be a catastrophe if Europe fails to show its solidarity. He urges that help should be sent at once to the population, stating that the sooner the nations of Europe show their goodwill the sooner the Soviet regime, which is now well on the way to dissolution, will be killed.

STUDENTS GO TO PEKING TO SEEK COLLEGE FUNDS

200 Leave Hankow In Final Effort To Obtain Needed Appropriation

(China Press Correspondence)

Hankow, October 3.—More than two hundred students of the Wuchang Government Teachers' College left yesterday by a special train for Peking, where they will bring pressure to bear through public demonstration on the ministry of Education in order to secure funds for running that college at Wuchang.

The traveling expenses of the students party will probably amount to about $5,000 and this step was taken after fruitless attempts were made to get funds from Peking.

The Teachers' College has had constant difficulty with the Peking government in getting money, and has been unable to open its doors this Fall term because the staff who have not been paid for several months refuse to begin teaching unless measures are taken by Peking to have the necessary funds supplied to the college regularly.

EXALTED IN BEDDING

"The meekest woman who ever rode two blocks beyond her street to avoid bothering a conductor will enter an auction room and have blood in her eye in less than three minutes," a local auction man explained. "Sometimes two of them will post themselves on either side of the rostrum and bid against each other until the unfortunate auctioneer has an ache in his neck from turning back and forth. Usually we stop the bidding before it reaches a point of absurdity. Otherwise an irate husband is likely to call next day accompanied by a wheelbarrow full of goods and a heavy cargo of resentment. Women are often so swept away by the spirit of an auction-room that they lose all sense of value and the article in question becomes the only object in their cosmos."

In contrast to these determined devotees of the hammer is the canniness of the Chinese bidders who frequently work in a clique to keep the prices low. Sometimes the owner of the article, if it is of substantial value, posts a bidder of his own to break the combination. Sometimes, however, the owner finds himself pinioned on the highest figure, in which case he is obliged to pay the usual auctioneer's commission for the privilege of buying goods from himself.

HERE IS A TIP

The most advantageous time to purchase Chinese furniture, works of art or curios is during the week or two preceding Chinese New Year. Not to settle one's debts on New Year Day involves a serious loss of face, and therefore families confronted by possible financial embarrassment trundle their household treasures to the auction rooms and await the coming of a foreigner with an acquisitive instinct.

But hidden away in a strong room, far from the medley of phonograph records, cook books, asthmatic motorcycles, and one-eyed dolls, we saw a collection of art objects that have filtered down from Russia and which would create a sensation in an auction room at home. Deep in a black leather box was an exquisitely carved ivory medallion of Lord Nelson, a few French vanity boxes of seventeenth century France, some delicate pieces of Dresden ware bought some years ago at a sale held by the German Emperor, and a yellowed ivory carving showing the entrance of Gustavus Adolphus into Brandenburg. The same establishment recently came into possession of several plates used by Louis XV at Sevres and a seventeenth century painting attributed to Benvenuto da Carafolo.

STICKINESS OF STAMPINGS

One of the most popular sales held by the local houses are stamp auctions. Germans take first prize for enthusiastic collecting, followed closely by the French and Chinese. The Chinese, incidentally, are developing a deep interest in acquiring stamps, the postal piasters of Esthonia, Yugo-Slavia, and other newly hatched nations being greatly in demand. Stamp auctions are a distinctively winter pastime, the stickiness of their reverse side making them impractical objects to handle in summer. The open season for stamps is just about to be declared.

Though the undertaker and the auctioneer are not quite in the same close partnership common at home, there are nevertheless many indications of tragedy in the auction rooms at Shanghai. Trunks left as dusty relics of unpaid board bills, effects of men who died alone in the East unnoted except in the files of a consulate, and the tattered trinkets of refugees tell sombre stories of their own to those who have ears to hear.

For after all, whether here or at home, there are few places in the world that cross more divergent currents of life or touch more varied phases of human experience than the places where personal possessions change owners under the hammer.

London, Oct. 5.—The inquest on the aeroplane disaster at Manston aerodrome when a large Vickers-Vimy crashed, killing an officer and four mechanics, showed that the machine behaved most satisfactorily in a flight a little earlier. Telephone Strike Adjusted; Service Is Uninterrupted

Situation Is Met Adequately When Feminine Employes Took Over Switchboards

Telephone operators who went on strike Wednesday afternoon following the arrest of an operator by the French police, returned to work yesterday, and by 2 o'clock full service had been resumed.

C. W. Porter, secretary of the Shanghai Mutual Telephone Company, said yesterday that the entire day force returned.

Thirty foreign girls, used by the telephone company as emergency operators, took stations at switchboards and gave uninterrupted service to all subscribers.

The strike resulted from the arrest by the French police of an operator who had just been dismissed by the company for insolence to a subscriber. Operators, due for work at 5:30 o'clock refused to go to work unless the man was released. The telephone company expressed themselves as satisfied that the man be released on bail.

The man was released at 1 o'clock yesterday, but the "heHo men" continued disgruntled and refused to return to work. Yesterday P. H. Cole, general manager of the company and strikers held a conference in a tea shop on Foochow Road at which the men objected to the fact that a French policeman could arrest anyone in the Settlement.

Conferences with Mr. Cole brought an end to the dispute, and at noon the day shift returned to work.

HUNAN SEES NEW ENEMY IN WU AND WILL RESIST

(China Press Correspondence)

Hankow, October 2.—The defeated Hunanese are seeking retaliation against their new enemy, Wu Pei-fu, whose armistice terms to Hunan as announced at a conference at Yochow with Hunan representatives have been refused by the Hunan people, although endorsed by Chao Heng-ti, a friend of Wu Pei-fu.

The two articles that cause the greatest objection are the quartering of Chihli troops at Yochow and the disbandment of all Hunan troops that participated in the fight against Hupeh. The latter was heard with indignation at Changsha by Hunan commanders who are calling to their assistance the Cantonese with a view of overthrowing Chao Heng-ti, who publicly abandoned his friends and colleagues to curry favor with Wu Pei-fu.

Men like Lo Ti-ping, Sung Ho-keng and Yeh Kai-seng have all sent private envoys to Szechuen to urge the commanders not to give up their fight against Wu Pei-fu in favor of any peace terms whatsoever that Wu Pei-fu may offer under the present circumstances. Again all former commanders under Chiang Tso-ping and Kung Keng have gone over to the Szechuen camps to cope with their former enemy, Wu Pei-fu.

FIGHT NEAR ICHANG

The Ichang war is still going on. The various fronts within about 20 miles of the city, which is now quiet. Repeated peace missions have failed to bring about a truce, and both sides are ready to fight it out. Szechuenese reinforcements have arrived about 18 miles above Ichang, where heavy fighting is expected.

Following the restoration of order and tranquility at Ichang by Wu Pei-fu, he requested the foreign guards to be withdrawn from the city. Wu Pei-fu promises to protect foreign lives and property. Upon the assumption of this full responsibility by Wu, the foreign guards have been withdrawn.

The blockade of river traffic above Ichang, especially between Ichang and Chungking, is still unrelieved, although the tenseness of the situation at Ichang has slackened off. British authorities at Ichang now have waived their advice against people going to Ichang, but it is intimated that women and children intending to go further than Ichang should not proceed up river until such time when through traffic is restored.

CHINESE GIRL IS SPEAKER BEFORE ROTARY MEETING

Miss Grace Yang In Address Tells Of Work Done By Y.W.C.A.

At the weekly tiffin meeting of the Rotary Club at the Astor House yesterday Miss Grace Yang, of the National Committee of the Y. W. C. A., was the principal speaker.

It was a novel experience for the Rotarians present to be addressed by a Chinese lady, but so easy was her delivery, so clear her enunciation, and so interesting her subject, that sex and nationality were soon forgotten.

Miss Yang dealt with the principal aspects of the work of her committee in China: the city work carried on at 11a Quinsan Road, and at 12 other centers in various cities, including educational, religious, social, hostel, war and famine activities; the propaganda of the Council on Health, and the success of their labors in the cholera and "better baby" campaigns; Student Work carried on in Northern and East-Central China, the Yangtsze provinces, Fukien and Kwangtung, 89 associations in all (in this connection Miss Yang dwelt on their efforts to bring the girl students to national and international consciousness); and, finally, Normal School work.

As a result of this latter activity, there are now no less than 50 graduates teaching in 18 provinces. Miss Yang humorously dealt with the large family of Secretaries, of whom there are no less than 128—86 foreign and 42 Chinese. In concluding her address, Miss Yang stated that each center was supported locally, but that, as funds are needed, a fortnight's campaign would begin on October 11.

Following Miss Yang, Mr. L. K. Hall, of the National Committee of the Y. M. C. A., gave a brief talk on the "Father and Son" movement in China. Mr. T. E. Doremus, immediate Past President of the Club, who has returned from a three months' business trip to America, gave a brief account of his travels and the business situation as he had found it.

Next Thursday will be a "closed" meeting, and no guests may be invited, as important matters are to be discussed.

VERA POHLMAN AGAIN DETAINED BY AUTHORITIES

Heroine In Norman Case Held In Connection With Bogus Check

Vera Pohlman, who figured so prominently in the events which succeeded the escape of Amos E. Norman and Harry Muncie from the American jail on the night of September 7, is again in trouble and is being detained by the United States authorities while they, with the Municipal police, are attempting to find out where she obtained a check she tried to cash yesterday.

Mrs. Pohlman presented the check, which is for £93, made out in favor of the Lloyd Triestino at the steamship company's offices Wednesday afternoon, giving her name to the clerk whom she asked to cash the document. The company and police were on the watch for the check and Central Station was immediately notified.

Wednesday afternoon a Polish citizen, one Yeartch, reported that his pocket had been picked earlier in the day at the South Manchurian Railway Company wharf, Yangtszepoo. Money and the check for £93 were stolen, he said.

This morning detectives brought Mrs. Pohlman to the American authorities where she is now held pending an investigation. The girl told the police that the check was given to her in payment for a debt incurred while she was running a bar in The Trenches.

Detectives found Mrs. Pohlman at her home, 134 Haskell Road, the house where Norman was found a week ago.

CANTONESE HELD AS COINERS GO TO COURT TODAY

Hearing In Mixed Court Of Counterfeiting Case To Be Resumed

The Hongkew counterfeit case, set for hearing in the Mixed Court yesterday, was passed over for a special hearing today on application by the attorneys concerned. The application was made owing to the lateness of the hour, as it was felt that a full session will be needed to get the evidence before the court.

Twenty defendants, Cantonese, have been arrested by the police in connection with the case, which is the most important of its kind to come before the Mixed Court in years. Seventeen men were arrested at the time the raid was made on a dwelling off Tsepoo Road, September 27, the other three being brought into custody on information secured subsequently.

The plant is the most modern and effective which has come into the hands of the local authorities and though it had been in operation but five days at the time Detective Sergeant Conduit and his squad descended on the premises, thousands of coins in various stages of completion were seized. The finished coins were so excellently made that exchange shop dealers accepted them readily as genuine. Mr. P W. Goldring is appearing for the defense and Mr. R. C. Faithfull will prosecute for the police.

Month's Fire Damage Totals Tls. 5,450

Twenty fires, of which 14 were serious, were reported by the fire brigade during the month of August, according to a report made by M. W. Pett, chief officer of the department.

Damages at fires was estimated at Tls. 5,450 and the amount of risk was Tls. 975,050. Five houses were damaged by smoke, fire and water.

The Hongkew division fought what was probably the most serious of the fires on August 22, at No. 1 Chapoo Road when a heavy loss to a godown packed with tea and an adjoining godown filled with tobacco was averted through sheeting up.

Mr. Pett announces that the two new Leyland pumps have arrived and have been placed in commission. The first is in use by the Hongkew division, and the second at the Sinza station. Pumping tests in both cases were satisfactory and the chief officer believes the machines to be even better than those delivered before the war.

Unregistered Dane Gets Prison Term In Mixed Court

'Joke' Results In Four Months Confinement For Man Who Stole Jewelry

William Dissmeyer, an unregistered Dane, was sentenced to four months imprisonment by Magistrate Tsang and American Assessor Allman in the Mixed Court yesterday as the result of a "joke".

Dissmeyer, claiming to be a commission man, was found guilty of being one of three foreigners who went on a spree a week ago, broke into a house at 274 North Szechuen Road, and took jewelry valued at $24 from a Chinese woman. Hadji Mohamed, said to have been the man who actually got the jewelry, was sentenced to three months imprisonment in the British court a few days ago.

Dissmeyer, in his own defense, and through his attorney, Mr. L. W. Hartison, claimed to have been the victim of unfortunate circumstances and asserted his innocence of any wrongdoing. Dissmeyer explained that Mohamed, another foreigner named Aquino who has since disappeared, and himself went on a party on the night of the adventure finally ending up at the house on North Szechuen Road considerably the worse for liquor imbibed.

Under the assumption that the house was a public house the three of them knocked and kicked at the door without response. Finally a Chinese constable came along, and after telling him that they were officials of the Mixed Court he assisted them in breaking the door in.

Rushing inside they met the protesting owner of the house and threw him outside scantily clad.

They insulted the man's wife, it was alleged, and then upon the charge that she was operating an unlicensed brothel forced her to give up jewelry valued at $24.

Dissmeyer denied that he had any part in securing the jewelry or in posing as officers of the law, claiming, on the contrary, that he had "done his utmost in words to make them desist". Afterward he refused to accept a third share of the ring's value, he said and gave Mohamed a fake address so that he wouldn't bother him again.

"At first it was all a joke," Dissmeyer said, "and as soon as I found out they intended keeping the ring I had nothing more to do with it."

Mr. R. C. Faithful, legal advisor to the police, asserted that Dissmeyer had been present when the entire affair occurred and yet made no effort to stop it and was, therefore under Chinese law, liable as well as the instigator or ringleader, Mohamed, already serving his jail sentence.

Mr. Faithful asked if the men had considered it their right to break into a house even though it were a public house, and cited an alleged prison record of Mohamed's as evidence that the affair was no joke but an out-and-out confidence game with the accused posing as officers of the law.

P. S. BOXERS PUT ON GOOD COMPETITION

Fourth And Fifth Lower Forms Score High Percentages

FINALS TONIGHT

Contests For Spunt Cup Draw Big Crowd Of Fans

The autumn boxing season opened yesterday with the first day's competition in the Inter-Form matches of the Public School for Boys, commencing at 5 p.m. The event was the first part of the annual competition for the H. Spunt trophy. Scoring was by points, 5 points for a win, 2 for a lose, and 3 for special commendation for speed, style, and all-round boxing ability irrespective of winning.

The competition was between the various school forms with boy contestants ranging in size from midget-weights to strong and husky bantams. The inter-form results will be in doubt until the final events this evening.

Last night's matches pitted Hutchinson, Lower IV, against Brockett, Lower V; Cook, Lower V, vs. Judah, Lower IV; Johnsen, VI, vs. Fowler, Lower IV, Carlson, Lower V, vs. Young, Upper V; Herzberg, Upper II vs. Nobleston, Upper V, and Dietrich, Lower IV, vs. Godkin, VI. Another match Herzberg, Lower V, vs. Jesu, Lower IV was carded but due to the failure of Herzberg to show up Jesu was awarded the decision.

The competition will be continued tonight at 5 p.m. with the following matches scheduled:

Poliak, V vs. Karanjia, Upper IV.
Siemssen, Upper V vs. Mahon, VI.
Herzberg, H., Upper II, vs Nobleston A., Upper V.
Beesley, Lower IV vs. Pinkham, Upper IV.
Reddick, Lower II vs Fonseca, Upper II.
Madar, VI vs Perry, Lower IV.

HOW THEY FOUGHT

In the first event last night Hutchinson got the decision in the first bout when Brockett was forced to quit in the third round with an injured arm after some rough scrimmaging. Brockett was the aggressor until he sustained his injury. The boxing was clean and open, and without a clinch from the opening gong until Brockett quit. The loser in the second round landed several clean and stiff blows. He began in the third to rough it when his arm failed him. Hutchinson's footwork was not as good as his opponent's. He was fortunate to get the decision.

The second event saw a real boxer in action. Cook of the Lower V. form in his bout with Judah of the Lower IV, showed real finesse as a midget boxer. He appeared to have everything from form to punch. He pushed things through the two rounds of his bout and had the advantage at every minute. Judah was willing but inexperienced in the finer touches. He started many hay-making swings but few landed. At the end of the second round he complained of a pain over the heart. He was advised to quit.

Johansson won his bout with Fowler in a dozen quick jabs, crowded into the first half minute of the first round. Fowler was bewildered by the attack. He never got into the bout. The fight was stopped and the decision awarded to the aggressive Johansson.

CARLSON WINS MAIN BOUT

The fourth event between Carlson of the Lower V. form and Young of the Upper V. provided the best interest of the card. Carlson was awarded the decision at the end of the fourth round after a fast and clever bout. The boys at the outset appeared to be evenly matched. Carlson however in the first stages forced the infighting persistently, crowding his opponent several times through the ropes, notwithstanding Young's stronger physique. Both boys landed often and cleanly with the going fast until the end of the second round when the bout slowed down a bit for breathing space. In the third Carlson by his nice footwork, and his faster and cleaner hitting shone to better advantage. The final round found both boys exchange slugs toe to toe, Carlson still showing the better, with well directed jabs nicely timed and cleanly placed. The decision went to Carlson with three extra points to each man for speed, style and ability.

Herzberg and Nobleston put on a midget-weight contest. Nobleston had the greater knowledge of ringcraft, but his rangy opponent with his longer reach and determined manner brought the event to the scheduled end at the fourth round with honors still even. Another round was asked by the judges, and after some stiff milling in Herzberg's corner, and some clever open work which Nobleston did the better execution the decision was given to the latter. Both boys were given extra points for style and ability.

The final event, between Dietrich of Form Lower VI and Godkin of Form VI, saw some serious boxing. Deitrich was possessed of the real fighting spirit, and his opponent of some clever footwork and other style. The latter's execution however was not effective, and Deitrich's direct method of attack got him the decision.

Mr. G. H. Parkes, physical director of the Public School acted as referee; Messrs. R. B. Martin and G. E. Matthews were judges. Mr. P. W. Bennett served as timekeeper.

HONGKONG WON EASILY ON THIRD NIGHT OF SWIM

Diving And Quarter Mile Were Annexed With But Little Opposition

SIEMSSEN SWAM WELL

Beat Out Jack For Second Place After Exciting Contest

Hongkong, Oct. 1.—Yesterday's third day of the interport swim with Shanghai had the usual big attendance, and the usual interesting competition. Hongkong scored first in the Running Diving, with Shanghai second. The quarter mile swim gave first place to Hongkong and second to Shanghai.

In the diving Shanghai was represented by five men against seven of Hongkong, every competitor being subject to three "tries." Of the Shanghai men J. B. Brown and E. A. Th. Siemssen were [illegible] in quick recovery, but the manner in which they took the water was not satisfactory, particularly that of the latter, two of whose "entries" were accompanied by big splashes. D. Laing, of Hongkong, scored an easy victory, obtaining 99½ points. J. B. Brown, of Shanghai, was second with 95½ points while A. P. Goldman (Shanghai) and G. A. V. Hall (Hongkong) were third and fourth with 95 and 90½ points respectively.

440 YARDS RACE

The event of the afternoon was the quarter mile race in which Hongkong and Shanghai were represented by an equal number of competitors. They were J. Johnstone and G. Jack (Hongkong) and E. A. Th. Siemssen and E. A. Brodie (Shanghai). All completed the distance which consisted of seventeen lengths of the bath, plus 15 yards.

The swimmers started off well together, Johnstone and Brodie keeping together in the first six laps with Jack and Siemssen slightly at their rear. A quick turn in the seventh lap gave Johnstone a slight lead over Brodie who began to lag in the next lap, giving the second place to Siemssen. Johnstone and Siemssen maintained their respective positions up to the twelfth length when Jack drew level with Siemssen, both of them being then two yards from Johnstone.

A keen tussle for second place between Jack and Siemssen in the next length resulted in the latter securing a lead which he increased to a few yards as the race progressed. All the time Johnstone was making great pace and when he was covering the sixteenth lap he was a full 12 yards ahead of the second man, Siemssen.

Excitement reached the fever pitch when the Hongkong "crack" was swimming the seventeenth lap and the termination of the race was marked by salvos of applause accorded by the spectators to Johnstone when he finished the race just as Siemssen completed the seventeenth length. Siemssen finished second with Jack a few yards behind and Brodie came in last. Johnstone's time was 5.58 2-5 secs. and Siemssen's 6.11-5 secs.

History Shows Babe Ruth Is A Piker As A Slugger

Old Figures Show Diamond Heroes Made Eight Or Nine Homers A Game

It sounds extraordinary, but, in the light of history, "Babe" Ruth as a homerun swatter shows up as a mere piker. A cursory examination of the Spalding baseball collection recently presented to the New York Public Library by Mrs. Albert G. Spalding, widow of the baseball publisher, will reveal the names of a dozen fence-busters whose feats with the willow far outshine any of those of the modern Kings of Swat.

It seems that in the fifties, just prior to the organisation of the National League of Professional Baseball Players, it was not unusual for a baseball player to hit out five or six home runs in a single game. Imagine the delirium of the grand stand if such a thing should happen today in Shanghai.

But the Atlantic Book of Box Scores, 1850 to 1859, shows that it was not at all uncommon for players to score eight, nine, or even ten runs in a game.

Opening the book at random, one finds that on August 5 the Atlantic Baseball Club defeated the Baltic Club by the score of 41 to 29. Again on September 15 the Atlantic team defeated the Baltics to the tune of 55 to 11. In the latter game Jack Grimms knocked out seven home runs.

Unfortunately the book does not indicate how long the games lasted or whether they were completed in one day. It also does not indicate how many times a batter was permitted to circle the bases after he knocked the ball over the fence or lost it in a river. There is one instance, however, where a player lost his job for not knocking out his allotted six homers.

The Spalding collection, consisting of some 4,000 books and pamphlets dating from 1804 to 1921, probably protrays development and history of our national pastime with more accuracy and detail than any other collection in the world.

NOW AUTUMN COMES WITH ITS TRAIN OF SPORT

With cooler weather and the middle of October nearly upon us, Shanghai sportsmen are turning away from Summer sports, and are getting ready for the sports of winter.

Tennis, cricket, lawn bowls and baseball are rapidly slipping to the rear of the local athletic stage while American football men are talking of organising early, planning a couple of games before Thanksgiving and the soccer football season gets away to a start today when the organisation meeting is to be held.

Several matches remain to be played in the lawn tennis championshp singles tournament which has meant several close games to date. Aspirants for the local title are arranging their own matches and are playing at the various clubs.

Golf has grabbed Shanghai by the hair and Hongkew Park, particularly, is popular early mornings. The Japanese have gone in for the game heavily and with Americans also taking a great interest yelling "fore."

TO MEET THIS AFTERNOON

The soccer football meeting will be held tomorrow afternoon at the Cathedral when there will be a discussion of the season's plans and an election of officers by the Football Association. Entries for both divisions in the league closed at noon today and the honorary secretary, Willie Clifford, will make an announcement tomorrow of the teams for the coming season.

The racing season gets away Saturday at the Shanghai Race Club with another meeting scheduled for Monday afternoon, the latter at the Kiangwan Track. Monday is a holiday, the anniversary of the founding of the Chinese Republic. The two meetings will give the dopesters a line on several ponies to watch during the training season which precedes the annual Autumn meeting. The polo team from Shanghai is arriving in Hongkong today.

While the season has officially closed, lawn bowlers will be active Saturday and Sunday, and the baseball fans may get a peek at the Huron nine, which will probably be seen in action at Hongkew Park against a picked Japanese team. The Huron team is anxious for one or two more games here as the flagship sails for Manila when Admiral Strauss returns from up river and the sailors plan to be in shape for the 26th Division when the men hit warm weather.

In the meantime the gobs are digging around the wellknown ditty boxes in the athletic room for football equipment—and a football guide has already arrived here.

Thus the old sport world rolls around in this part of the world even as it does across the seas and if these cool mornings are really showing the way, it will be but a few weeks 'ere we are dropping the overcoat over the back of the chair and settling down to enjoy a match in the billiard tournament.

In the meantime we are set for racing, some polo, soccer football, the American variety, golf and hockey, dying gasps for lawn bowler, baseball players and tennis men and look forward to basketball and billiards. Shooting and riding we always have with us.

Polish Note Denies Charges Of Soviet

(Rosta News Agency)

Moscow, Sept. 29.—The Polish Government in its latest note to Mr. Chicherin, Commissar of Foreign Affairs of Soviet Russia, denies the accusation of the Soviet Government that the Polish Government is harboring White Guard bandits and that Russian Cossacks are employed in the Polish frontier defense service.

The note also repudiates the charge of the Soviet Government that Poland is acting under pressure of France. In conclusion the note refers to the peaceful intentions of the Polish Government, which is striving to abide by the conditions of the Riga Peace Treaty.

The Paris press is keenly interested in Russo-Polish relations. pressure upon Poland and Rumania against Soviet Russia.

Woman's League To Aid Strangers

The first meeting of the season of the Woman's Overseas League was held Wednesday at 7 Route des Soeurs when means of helping young women arriving in Shanghai find living accommodations and positions were discussed. A committee was appointed to investigate this subject.

Last year the club devoted itself mainly to the entertainment the navy men but plans are being mainly to the entertainment of the the organisation this year.

Mrs. Charles M. Campbell of the Shanghai American School was elected temporary chairman to serve in the absence of the president, Miss Helen Sanger, who is visiting in Peking.

A telegram expressing the good wishes of the organisation was sent to Miss Caroline Thompson, the president of the League, whose engagement to Mr. Eugene Templeton of Peking was announced recently.

London, Oct. 5.—On the conclusion of the labors of the League of Nations the bulk of the Dominions and Indian delegates will return to London.

Dr. Nansen (Norway) is already in London, and today was a guest at a luncheon by Lord Cowdray. Dr. Nansen said that the spirit of the Assembly of the League was going to change world politics. He was so impressed with it that he was going to spend the rest of his life fighting for the League.

The greatest of the great things it had accomplished this year, he said, had been the establishment of the International Court of Justice, which was an enormous step towards the peace of the universe. Referring to Russia, he said it was unavoidable that two or three million lives should be lost, but he did not believe it possible that the Governments of Europe would do nothing. A refusal to help was the best way of helping Bolshevism.

Geneva, Oct. 5.—The Assembly of the League of Nations has adopted the revised scale of contributions to the expenses of the League, which provides that these shall be based on the relation between each country's revenue and population and that of the rest of the world.

Fourteen States have signed the protocol to the White Slave Traffic Convention, including Great Britain, Australia, Canada, South Africa, New Zealand, Italy, Portugal and Siam. France and South America abstained. The signature of one third of the States in the League is necessary for the Convention to operate.

Pavlova's Teacher Gives Fine Program

(China Press Correspondence)

Mrs. K. M. Kulichevskaia, teacher of the celebrated artist, Anna Pavlova with her company of fifteen dancers and artists delighted a large audience at the Olympic theater last night. It probably may be said that no Shanghai audience ever was more delighted than that at the Olympic last night with this extraordinary entertainment.

Pavlova's teacher received her early training at the Imperial Ballet School in Petrograd. After completing her studies there she danced at the Imperial Theater for many years. She made many appearances before the Russian Imperial family who delighted in her exquisite art. The next step in Mrs. Kulichevskaia's career was her appointment as head instructor at the Imperial Ballet School in Petrograd, which post she ably filled for some 15 years giving to the world such gems of art as portrayed in the work of Anna Pavlova and Smirnova.

Fleeing from the Bolsheviki Pavlova's teacher left Petrograd and made her way to Vladivostok where she had much success in the teaching of her art. All those who appeared on last night's program were pupils of Mrs. Kulichevskaia, who purposes opening a 'Ballet School' here.

More Defendants Are Summoned In Trust Company Suit

British Consulate Compradore And Chairman Of Board Are To Appear

The criminal action brought by the Shanghai Mercantile Trust Company against Tseu Zi-vung and two others for alleged circulation of rumors calculated to damage the concern in the eyes of shareholders and the public had a further hearing in the Mixed Court yesterday when summonses were issued for two more men. Of the two men to be summonsed one, Chu Wei-ching, was chairman of the board of directors of the firm and the other, Dau Wen-sung, is compradore of the British Consulate, and a shareholder in the company, which is capitalised at $5,000,000.

The hearing came before Assessors Hutchison and Ferrajolo and Magistrate Loh, M. F. J. Schuhl and Mr. G. D. Musso appearing for the prosecution and Messrs. K. E. Newman and J. B. Davies for the defendants.

The morning was taken up with testimony given by the acting managing director relating to the letters and advertisements upon which the suit is based. The witness at one stage stated that he personally had no objection to advertisements which had been inserted in newspapers bearing on the condition of the company but that exception had been taken chiefly to a letter purporting to bear the names of thirty shareholders and accusing the officials of waste and mismanagement. The directors, he said, objected to the announcement made in the advertisement that shares of the company were selling at about $8. The par figure was $12.50 and Mr. Musso pointed out that the market quotations in the newspapers introduced as evidence showed that the shares had risen from $8.50 to $9.50 on the date in question.

Mr. Newman submitted that the only objection which the officials really had was to the formation of a shareholders' union.

The question of issue of warrants for the appearance of Chu and Dau was raised by Mr. Newman and Mr. Musso said that he would apply for warrants. Mr. Newman then objected, stating that a summons would be sufficient, whereupon Mr. Musso retorted that counsel had brought the application for warrants upon himself. The Court ruled that warrants would be issued, to be endorsed with the stipulation that the men be released on $200 security, but afterward changed the ruling and stated that summonses would issue.

British Women's Assn. Bazaar To Be Held On Nov. 4

(China Press Correspondence)

A bazaar under the auspices of the S. S. Board will be held on Friday, November 4, from 3 to 7 p.m., at the Headquarters of the Association. It was suggested through these columns, in June, that all members who went away for the summer, should bring back something for the sale. This has been done by several members, and those who have not been away, or were unable to bring back anything, are asked for their support, both in sending one or more gifts for sale, and in attending the bazaar. Contributions for the sale may be sent, on or before October 30, to Mrs. Cornfoot, 9 Route Francis Garnier, or to the Secretary, at the Headquarters.

Mrs. Percy Gaunt, 12 Kiaochow Road is the hon. secretary, and all communications about the bazaar should be addressed to her. It is hoped that such things as handpainted name and Christmas cards, woollen garments, toys, jam, sweets, and any fancy articles may be sent in.

The first meeting of the Literary Department of the American Woman's Club will be held at the Royal Asiatic Society Hall on Museum Road Friday, October 14. Mrs. Elizabeth Dadisman will read a paper on "The When and Where of Early Chinese History," Mrs. P. H. Dunbar on "The Three Great Legendary Heroes."

TWO AMERICAN LEPERS ARE REPORTED CURED

(Reuter's Service)

Manila, Sept. 23—(by mail).—Two Americans have been cured of leprosy within the last year, according to an announcement made at the Sternberg Hospital in Manila recently. One of the patients, a veteran of the Spanish-American war, who arrived in the Philippines as a seaman in Admiral Dewey's squadron, has been confined at the Culion leper colony for many years. He has now been pronounced cured but will remain under observation for another year.

Rubber Shareholders Hold First Meeting

(Reuter's Service)

London, Oct. 4.—The first meeting of the Rubber Shareholders' Association was held yesterday. Mr. Zorn, presiding, explained that its object was to enable shareholders to have a proper voice before decisions vitally important to the rubber industry were made. He declared that the shareholders felt that proposals for the better regulation of the industry were not considered purely upon their merits, but in many cases the decision of a Company as to whether it should support a scheme was influenced by the vested interests, those who feared that the suggested new departure might interfere with their private profits or emoluments.

Mr. A. Devitt of Messrs. Lewis and Peat gave particulars of the steps being taken to extend the use of rubber. In connection with the fact that the percentage of pure rubber in many rubber articles was extremely small, Mr. Devitt expressed the opinion that in many directions it should be possible greatly to increase this percentage, even to 100 percent on some case.

He mentioned that the pure rubber shoe soles which were now being manufactured in the East lasted much longer than existing rubber soles.

Obata Wanted To Pass Back China's Answer

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, Oct. 6.—It appears that when Dr. W. W. Yen, the Foreign Minister, handed the Chinese Government's reply to the Japanese memorandum to the Japanese Minister, Mr. Obata, yesterday the latter briefly scanned it and then suggested its reconsideration by the Chinese Government as he did not feel justified in accepting it.

Finally however Mr. Obata agreed to take the document away and peruse it carefully and decide later whether he would accept it for retransmission to Tokio. Up to the present he has not come to any decision in the matter.

Holder Top Shaving Stick

The necessity of Williams' Shaving stick is paramount in Shaving. Its rich, lasting lather imparts a velvety coolness to the face which makes shaving a pleasure.

An added convenience is the Holder Top feature. The holder forms the top of the box when the stick is not in use and prevents the soap from touching fingers when being used. The Holder can be reloaded at less cost than the complete stick.

Shanghai Volunteer Corps Notes

The monthly mess dinner was held at the Shanghai Club last night and was well attended from most units, notable absentees being officers from the F. A. Battery, Engineers, Machine Gun Company, Customs and Italian Companies and the British Infantry Reserves.

A great acquisition to our meagre vocal resources was found in 2-Lieut. Britto who sang a couple of songs very nicely. The lack of instrumental talent was filled by a guest, Mr. Wallace, late of the Black Watch, who played the piano with considerable skill.

Among other things, we want a good rousing S.V.C. song to an original march tune. Will some enterprising member or members of the Corps compose either, or better still both, for us?

The idea of having an assault-at-arms in the spring has been mooted. The Commandant would be very glad to have the views of Units on this matter.

Some 210 entries have been received for the Corps Rifle meeting which is to take place at the week ends 15th-16th and 22nd-23rd this month. This number of entries constitutes a record.

September was a good month from the recruiting point of view. The following increases in strength occurred during the month:

Maritime Company, 19; Light Horse, 12; American Company, 7; Shanghai Scottish, 6; British Infantry Reserves, 3; Field Artillery Battery, 2; "A" Company British, 2; "B" Company, British, 2; Italian Company, 1, while a decrease of 8 in all is shown in other units, making a nett increase in the Corps strength of 45.

This month augurs even better, as there is a large influx into the Portuguese Company, 24 having joined and more to come, while the Chinese Company recruits will be taken on the strength shortly, and both "A" Company and the Scottish are steadily adding to their numbers.

PLANS RIVER CRUISE

The Maritime Company river cruise will take place on Sunday next, October 9, time and place of the meeting will be given out by the Entertainment Committee. Members wishing to join the cruising party are requested to send their names to Gunner Levy, 34 Haskell Road, to enable him to know the numbers to cater for.

The Maritime Bulletin has been posted to all members of the Company. Any member who has not received a copy can receive one by applying to the Editor, 17 Nanking Road. Any Volunteer can receive a copy by applying to the above address. The subscription is $3 per year for non-members of the Maritime Company.

The Maritime Company will parade tonight at 6:15 p.m. in the new drill hall, Foochow Road. Dress: Marching order. All members must turn up, whether they have uniform or not.

"B" COMPANY SHOOT

The annual rifle meeting of this Unit took place on Saturday and Sunday, October 1 and 2.

The weather conditions were all that could be wished for and the meeting was voted a great success. 90 percent of the members entered, of whom 30 fired their Efficiency Course, resulting in 7 Marksmen, 9 1st Class shots, 11 2nd Class shots and 3, 3rd Class shots. Lieutenant L.M.ff. Beytagh made the creditable score of 169 points out of a possible 195 in the Course.

Fifty-six sat down to tiffin at which the Commandant, Col. R. Marr-Johnson, C.M.G., D.S.O. Majors Pilcher and Canning, Captains Stewart and Cubitt, and the Orderly Room staff were present.

In a resume of the year's work, Captain Melville pointed out that the Unit had been placed first in the Musketry return, first in the Efficiency return, third in the Barnes Cup and Inter-Company Competitions, first in the Bray Judging Distance and first in the Overseas Cup Competitions. He appealed for more recruits, pointing out that although the Unit was 100 percent stronger than in August 1919, yet it was necessary to make the present 52 up to at least 100 if any real benefit to the Unit as a whole was desired. Colonel Marr-Johnson also referred to the vital necessity of recruiting for ALL the British Units and congratulated the Unit on their recent successes.

The following is the result of the shooting. It is intended to present the prizes during the Unit camp which will be held on November 11, 12 and 13 and to which it is hoped every member will make a special effort to attend.

APPEAL FOR RECRUITS

Today an appeal is in the hands of every known Scotsman in Shanghai either to support the Company by urging others to join or to join the ranks himself. This is the first step in an active recruiting campaign which has been launched and from which good results are expected. Recruiting Offices have been opened at 49 Kiangse Road.

The Company, which hitherto has held its annual dinner on October 30, has this year decided to make a change with a view to creating greater interest in the work of the Unit. A dance will be held on October 31 at the Astor House, and during the evening it is expected a short address will be delivered by one of Shanghai's Scottish worthies. Everything is being done to make the affair a success.

Efforts are also being made to secure as many entries as possible for the Corps Annual Rifle Meeting which takes place this month, with the desire that shooting may be considerably improved.

The Company's annual general meeting is fixed for Friday, October 14, when a statement of accounts will be submitted for approval, the Committee elected for the ensuing year and the Musketry Board appointed. After the usual business the meeting as usual will be open for discussion of anything for the benefit of the Company.

Deportations Halt London Opium Sales

(Reuter's Service)

London, Oct. 4.—The Chinese colony in Limehouse are gloomy owing to the forthcoming deportation to China of Low Ping-you in consequence of his activities in opium traffic in the East End of London.

The police say that the traffic has practically been killed, at least for the time being, by deportations, and also owing to the decline in the number of Chinese sailors coming to London as a result of the opposition on the part of the Sailors' Union to the employment of Chinese on British ships.

Three More Nations Invited To Meet

Bids Are Prepared For Belgium Holland And Portugal

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Washington, Oct. 4.—The State Department is preparing invitations to the Governments of Belgium, Portugal and Holland to attend the Conference on Far Eastern subjects.

Peking, Oct. 2.—It is reported on good authority that Dr. C. C. Wu, the son of Dr. Wu Ting-fang, has telegraphed to Peking to decline the offer made him of an appointment as one of the Chinese delegates to the Pacific Conference.

YUAN HEADS RED CROSS

Peking, Oct. 2.—Both Mr. Wang Tah-hsieh, President of the Chinese Red Cross Society, and Admiral Tsai Ting-kan, its Vice-President, are being sent to the Pacific Conference. Mr. Yuan Ling, Chief Advisor to the Society, will take over their duties during their absence.

CHINESE WIRE HARDING

Manila, October 1—(by mail).—The Chinese community of Manila has cabled to President Harding, urging him to invite delegates of the Southern Government to sit in the Far Eastern Conference at Washington on November 11. The Nationalist Party of Manila, who favor Dr. Sun Yat-sen, and the Students' Union, will send similar messages, it is announced.

The cablegram reads: "We urge you to invite the delegation of the Constitutional Government at Canton to attend the Disarmament Conference at Washington, for the Peking Government is illegal and does not represent the people, and their delegation cannot represent the people of the Republic of China."

Washington, Oct. 4.—It is understood that the status of Belgium, Holland and Portugal at the Washington Conference will be similar to that of China.

Japanese Occupy Schools In Amur

(Dalta News Agency)

Harbin, October 1.—A few days ago eight persons were deported, and their bodies were subsequently found not far from the city. The political opponents of Merkuloff mysteriously disappear every day. It is reported that they are shot outside the city of Vladivostok on the pretext of attempting to escape.

A conference of Japanese residents in Vladivostok was held in connection with the impending evacuation of Japanese forces from the Maritime Province. The conference decided to take precautionary measures against the criminal elements in the city and to find means of promoting Russo-Japanese friendship.

In the lower Amur region the Japanese forces are occupying all school buildings. The Japanese are importing into the district large quantities of liquors but nothing more.

DELICATE FROM BIRTH

How Baby's Own Tablets Help Weakly Children.

In three words—"delicate from birth"—is expressed a world of anxieties suffered by mothers whose children have had a bad start in life. For little ones who are ailing, peevish, worried by teething, fickle of appetite, and unable to digest food Baby's Own Tablets have proved of the utmost value.

"My last baby was sickly from birth and the benefit Baby's Own Tablets have afforded is simply wonderful. They do all that is claimed for them and more, and I would not be without them for anything," writes Mrs. A. D. Waite, 1207 Fremont Avenue, North Minneapolis, U.S.A.

Baby's Own Tablets, the Canadian children's remedy, are obtainable from chemists, also post free 60 cents the vial, from Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., 96 Szechuen Road, Shanghai.

Sons Of Italy's King Are Learning Trades

Paris, Sept. 3.—European monarchies were given a severe jolt by the great war, and many crowned heads found their positions disappear in the turmoil following the defeat of the Central Powers. Few monarchs are left, and these are now greatly worried as to the future, which they see is by no means certain. The King of Italy evidently foresees that his house will not rule the kingdom for a much longer period. Therefore the Italian Princes are learning trades and useful occupations, so that they will not be entirely at sea should the Italian Communists get their own way.

The Prince of Udine is the latest recruit to this plan. He favors the mechanical engineering trade and almost any day now one can see him clad in the blue blouse of a railroad engineer piloting a train between Turin and Rome. The crash will not find him unable to earn his own living.

PARTISANS REPULSED

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Vladivostok, Oct. 6.—Small bands of Partisans attacked Spassk on Oct. 3 and 4 but were driven off by the militia with slight losses.

Exchange Market

Messrs. Maitland, Fearon and Brand write as follows in their exchange circular for week ending October 5.

Exchange: The London price of Silver at 4/2½d. is ⅜d. lower than last week. The support from the Indian Bazaars appears to be slackening. Our official quotation for T/T on London at 4/0d. is 2d. up. Supported by a fair amount of speculative cover from our local Gold Dealers our market ruled firm with a premium of from 2d. to 3d. offering, until today, when the price of Gold Bars went to over Tls. 300 and the speculators appeared as buyers of Gold T/T. We closed with a weak tendency. The general position as far as China Exchange is concerned has for the last month or more been fogged by a determined "bull" movement on the part of our local Gold dealers and the Dairen merchants. As far as we are able to gather this movement does not appear to be based upon a good estimate of the balance of trade, taking invisible imports into consideration and we anticipate that their covering operations will bring rates to a lower level within the next month or so.

Our stocks of silver are reported as follows:

Sycee and Bar Silver, Tls. 24,276,000 a decrease of Tls. 271,000.

Chinese and Mexican Dollars, $22,700,000 a decrease of $950,000.

Estimated value in Tls. 40,520,000 as against Tls. 55,280,000 held at this time last year.

Chinese Of West Coast Raise Big Fund For Trade

Peking, Oct. 4.—Chinese residents of the West Coast of the United States have united to establish a steamship terminal with docks and warehouses, an Asiatic bank and a trade journal, which will appear monthly. The money for this scheme has already been raised, and the trade journal has been established with its head office at San Francisco, according to a report received here yesterday from that city. The same report states that a committee of Chinese is now visiting Seattle, Portland, San Francisco and Los Angeles to determine which of these ports is best suited for the contemplated trade terminal and bank.

The object of this plan, for which G.$900,000 have already been raised from Chinese all over the United States, is the establishment of closer trade relations between China and the United States and a better understanding of each other by the citizens of the two countries, according to Mr. Chan, one of the scheme's chief promoters.

PLAN THREE COMPANIES

There will be three distinct organisations, one to construct and maintain the terminal, warehouses and docks in a West Coast port, the second to finance and operate a bank which will facilitate financial and commercial exchanges between China and America, and the third, which has already been completed, to publish a trade magazine, printed in both Chinese and English, for circulation in China and the United States.

Through these three organisations it is hoped to induce Chinese merchants to export most of their goods to the United States and at the same time buy heavily of American manufactured goods. This view of the plan has met with the favor of the Chinese merchants along the American West Coast for several years, but the World War delayed its realisation, and it was not until last year that practical work for the furtherance of the plan was begun.

There is now enough money in hand to finance the plan, say its promoters, and fresh funds from Chinese all over the United States pour into the treasury every day.

STATE AID IS PROMISED

The state authorities of California, Washington, Oregon, Nevada, Arizona and New Mexico have promised to do what they can to assist the plan for the development of Chinese-American commerce, and the American Department of Commerce has given aid in formulating the plans of the Chinese promoters, as well as the actual work of organisation.

In all three organisations provided for by the present plans there will be over 5,000 shareholders, all of whom will be Chinese either naturalised in America before the exclusion act or born there since. No Chinese from China or any other part of the world except the United States will be allowed to buy an interest in these organisations, as their promoters believe that, while they are Chinese by race, they are also Americans by birth. Thus they have a sort of dual status which will enable them to render genuine service to the country of their ancestors and the country of their adoption.

Moplah Reble Chief Gathers New Force

(Reuter's Service)

London, Oct. 4.—The latest news of the Moplah rising shows that the Khilafat leader, Kunhamed, who was recently reported to have established a Khilafat "kingdom" in one of the affected districts and was subsequently stated to have fled before the British troops, is now heading a rebel band of 2,250 men, with 50 firearms.

According to refugees who have arrived at Calicut from Thuvur, 34 Hindus and two Moplahs who were tried by Kunhamed were executed there, their heads being cut off and thrown into a well.

The Moplahs were beheaded for helping the troops. Fifty Hindus houses in Thuvur also were burned down.

Only Four Points Left For Parleys

(Reuter's Service)

London, Oct. 5.—Mr. Leslie Urquhart, Chairman of the Russo-Asiatic Consolidated Co., Ltd., has returned to London from Moscow. He has reached an agreement with the Bolsheviks on 35 out of 39 points concerning the re-opening of the Russo-Asiatic Consolidated Company's mining properties. He will discuss the remaining points with M. Krassin in London.

Exchange Market

Messrs. Maitland, Fearon and Brand write as follows in their exchange circular for week ending October 5.

Exchange: The London price of Silver at 4/2½d. is ⅞d. lower than last week. The support from the Indian Bazaars appears to be slackening. Our official quotation for T/T on London at 4/0d. is 2d. up. Supported by a fair amount of speculative cover from our local Gold Dealers our market ruled firm with a premium of from 2d. to 3d. offering, until today, when the price of Gold Bars went to over Tls. 300 and the speculators appeared as buyers of Gold T/T. We closed with a weak tendency. The general position as far as China Exchange is concerned has for the last month or more been fogged by a determined "bull" movement on the part of our local Gold dealers and the Dairen merchants. As far as we are able to gather this movement does not appear to be based upon a good estimate of the balance of trade, taking invisible imports into consideration and we anticipate that their covering operations will bring rates to a lower level within the next month or so.

Our stocks of silver are reported as follows:

Sycee and Bar Silver. Tls. 24,276,000 a decrease of Tls. 271,000.

Chinese and Mexican Dollars, $22,700,000 a decrease of $950,000.

Estimated value in Tls. 40.520,000 as against Tls. 55,280,000 held at this time last year.

Chinese Of West Coast Raise Big Fund For Trade

Peking, Oct. 4.—Chinese residents of the West Coast of the United States have united to establish a steamship terminal with docks and warehouses, an Asiatic bank and a trade journal, which will appear monthly. The money for this scheme has already been raised, and the trade journal has been established with its head office at San Francisco, according to a report received here yesterday from that city. The same report states that a committee of Chinese is now visiting Seattle, Portland, San Francisco and Los Angeles to determine which of these ports is best suited for the contemplated trade terminal and bank.

The object of this plan, for which G.$900,000 have already been raised from Chinese all over the United States, is the establishment of closer trade relations between China and the United States and a better understanding of each other by the citizens of the two countries, according to Mr. Chan, one of the scheme's chief promoters.

PLAN THREE COMPANIES

There will be three distinct organisations, one to construct and maintain the terminal, warehouses and docks in a West Coast port, the second to finance and operate a bank which will facilitate financial and commercial exchanges between China and America, and the third, which has already been completed, to publish a trade magazine, printed in both Chinese and English, for circulation in China and the United States.

Through these three organisations it is hoped to induce Chinese merchants to export most of their goods to the United States and at the same time buy heavily of American manufactured goods. This view of the plan has met with the favor of the Chinese merchants along the American West Coast for several years, but the World War delayed its realisation, and it was not until last year that practical work for the furtherance of the plan was begun.

There is now enough money in hand to finance the plan, say its promoters, and fresh funds from Chinese all over the United States pour into the treasury every day.

STATE AID IS PROMISED

The state authorities of California, Washington, Oregon, Nevada, Arizona and New Mexico have promised to do what they can to assist the plan for the development of Chinese-American commerce, and the American Department of Commerce has given aid in formulating the plans of the Chinese promoters, as well as the actual work of organisation.

In all three organisations provided for by the present plans there will be over 5,000 shareholders, all of whom will be Chinese either naturalised in America before the exclusion act or born there since. No Chinese from China or any other part of the world except the United States will be allowed to buy an interest in these organisations, as their promoters believe that, while they are Chinese by race, they are also Americans by birth. Thus they have a sort of dual status which will enable them to render genuine service to the country of their ancestors and the country of their adoption.

Moplah Reble Chief Gathers New Force

(Reuter's Service)

London, Oct. 4.—The latest news of the Moplah rising shows that the Khilafat leader, Kunhamed, who was recently reported to have established a Khilafat "kingdom" in one of the affected districts and was subsequently stated to have fled before the British troops, is now heading a rebel band of 2,250 men, with 50 firearms.

According to refugees who have arrived at Calicut from Thuvur, 34 Hindus and two Moplahs who were tried by Kunhamed were executed there, their heads being cut off and thrown into a well.

The Moplahs were beheaded for helping the troops. Fifty Hindus houses in Thuvur also were burned down.

Only Four Points Left For Parleys

(Reuter's Service)

London, Oct. 5.—Mr. Leslie Urquhart, Chairman of the Russo-Asiatic Consolidated Co., Ltd., has returned to London from Moscow. He has reached an agreement with the Bolsheviks on 35 out of 39 points concerning the re-opening of the Russo-Asiatic Consolidated Company's mining properties. He will discuss the remaining points with M. Krassin in London.

Shanghai, October 6, 1921

Spot bar silver was down 3/8 and forward 1/2 in London yesterday. The New York price declined to 70⅝ cents.

The only change in the official rates of the day here were in Gold Dollars which were raised to 75½ and the Yen to 62.

The market opened on the easy side when business was done at 4/1¼ for October and 4/0½ for December; however, during the course of the day rates eased off considerably as there was a strong demand from speculators and banks also were good buyers.

At one time, as low as 4/0 for October and 3/11 for December was done, but late in the afternoon rates firmed up slightly and the market closed with sellers at 4/0¼ in Sterling for October, 4/0 for November and 3/11½ for December.

London-New York advices quote the silver market there as being on the easy side, so that it is quite likely that quotations there will drop during the next day or two.

The London-New York cross rate was improved considerably and was quoted strong at 377¼. Franc rates also showed considerable improvement.

Are The Flood Victims To Perish ?

WHAT becomes of the funds from the famine surtaxes imposed upon public utilities?

Since last November the surtax on communications alone has yielded half a million dollars monthly to the Peking government, supposedly for the relief of people in the famine districts. The International Relief committees report that to their knowledge none of this money has been applied to actual feeding of starving people, and that the measures undertaken in the Anhwei flood disaster are purely of a private nature.

It may be unwise for active relief workers to clamor for a proper expenditure of surtax funds How much money has been collected from the railroads, telegraph, post office and likin duties cannot be ascertained, but officers of the Chinese Foreign Famine Relief committee declare that the only relief provided has been from the four million fund turned over to them from the surtax on customs. To obtain through diplomatic channels the remaining four million dollars of the yearly yield of customs surtax was the mission of the officers of that organisation to Peking recently.

The post office of Shanghai yesterday announced that the surtax on registered articles and money orders would cease from October 10. The public may be tempted to believe that the surtax on railway tickets and other things will also be abolished, but reports from Peking indicate that the government intends to postpone abolition of the main surtaxes indefinitely.

There has been sufficient opposition to the surtaxes voiced by both foreigners and Chinese for the government to understand their unpopularity. But if pay it must the public would like to see relief measures carried out in the flood districts in proportion to the sums of money thus far collected. If the funds have been accumulating with the official hopes that the public will forget about them, and allow their disappearance into the immense sink of corruption, it is time adequate means were found to call for a full account.

If the surtax funds are in existence why are they not effectively employed in providing for the victims of the Anhwei floods, for the six million homeless people concentrated on the little hills and dykes in the district around Pengpu? The area under water is estimated by engineers at 8,000 square miles. The height of the water four days ago was fifteen feet, and it is subsiding at the slow rate of four inches a day. It will be impossible to grow crops until next spring.

Private measures to relieve the flood victims have not been lacking among the Chinese. The Nanking Relief Committee did excellent work when the flood was at its height. Yesterday a meeting was held in Shanghai of Chinese from the three provinces, Anhwei, Kiangsu, and Chekiang, to co-ordinate their efforts.

The Chinese Foreign Famine Relief committee is trying to unite all the committees into one, with a distributing center at Pengpu. For some time yet the distribution of food will have to be done by boats, which are also used to disperse the people from their places of refuge as soon as sections of higher ground become visible. The concentration has allowed cholera to spread, and the people must be scattered even before the water entirely subsides, or the epidemic will get beyond control.

What these homeless people need is work during the winter, as their land will be untillable. If, as the officials declare, the surtaxes have been properly administered there should be a large surplus somewhere in Peking. Some has been expended already on road building.

It is pointed out that the reason for the Anhwei flood is that, the Hwai Ho has no outlet to the sea. The river became turbulent during the rains, the Grand Canal flooded its banks, into which the Hwai flows, also rose far above their normal height. There was an American project on foot before the war to cut a channel from the lakes to the sea, a distance of about seventy miles over all. Such a channel would drain all the tributaries of the Hwai Ho, and, if large enough, prevent future floods in the districts.

The expenditure of the surtax funds, if they exist, in such a project would have the double function of giving immediate relief in the way of work for the flood victims, and would remove the cause of their present misfortunes.

There may be an official rendering of accounts in the surtax business some day, but at present the public feels that most of the funds thus acquired have been used in ways quite removed from those of relief. Chinese officials have demonstrated very few of those qualities which merit international confidence in their administration of public funds. A noble effort to save their own people from starvation and death by disease would be an eloquent argument to the arbiters who are soon to discuss Chinese affairs at the Washington Conference.

The Bad-Mannered Young Man

(Daily Chronicle)

'An Old Etonian' complains that young men of today are bad mannered, defiant of discipline, and worshippers of independence.

"Many of them," he says, "when talking to other persons, including people older than themselves, never take their pipes out of their mouths. When they are asked to luncheon with hostesses in London many of them appear in undergraduate clothes and flannel collars."

A Daily Chronicle representative tried to discover, by personal experience, the truth of these assertions.

In several restaurants the manners of men visitors were startlingly bad.

In one well-known and expensive restaurant two men were lunching in rough country tweeds, brown brogues, flannel shirts and collars and blue ties. They were talking loudly, rather to the annoyance of those at neighboring tables.

At another table in the same place a man lit a pipe, after he had finished his meal, in careless disregard of the convention that pipes should not be smoked in restaurants.

A society hostess, interviewed by the Daily Chronicle representative said: "The manners of young men today are appalling. Recently a very well-known peer's wife told me that invitations to her popular parties were never responded to by more than a small proportion of men; and that is my own experience.

"A man will turn up at a party if he finds he has nothing better to do; but he won't answer an invitation.

"The attitude of young men to old people is rather distressing. Any chivalry that exists today is to be found among girls, not among young men. You do find gentleness and courtesy in some modern girls, but the young man simply thinks old people dull.

"I regret the passing of the 'nut,' as the well-mannered, immaculately dressed young man was called. He had his affectations, but he was scrupulously polite."

Arnold Bennett Sees Hope In Dancing Craze

BY ARNOLD BENNETT

(Distinguished English Author, Who Is Writing A Series of Articles on Current Topics).

The new generation—I mean the generation which in 1914 was just old enough to fight, nurse or otherwise serve in the war—probably shows a more striking change from the one before it than any generation has shown for at least two centuries.

A change in mind, spirit and manner!

The change of manner, of course irritates a large number of persons who are shocked because the world continues to go round after they have begun to suffer from rheumatism and baldness.

The changes of mind and spirit, however, are more important. As regards mind, the latest generation is better educated, more cultivated, less hypocritical, more courageous, more honest, less "stuffy" than its predecessor; and in all these respects has quite marvelously improved on its predecessors predecessors. Further, it has completed a sort of revolution in the relations of the sexes, which aforetime were regulated by a system of conventions, shams and pretences that can only be described as poisonus.

As regards the spirit, the latest generation has rediscovered, or is rediscovering, the greatest secrets—lost since the Elizabethan age—that the chief thing in life is to feel that you are fully alive; that life oughtn't to be a straight line, but a narrow series of ups and downs; that continual repression is a tragic absurdity; that dullness is a social crime; that the present is quite as important as the future, and that moments of ecstacy are the finest moments and the summits of existence.

PUBLIC DANCE HALLS

It has finally killed the Victorian age dead. I am willing to admit that the Victorian age was a great age, though it acutely exasperated me when I was young. But that it had the terrible vices of continual repression and disgusting hypocrisy cannot be disputed, and to contemplate its corpse gives me genuine pleasure.

So much for the achievement of the latest generation. The latest hasn't done everything itself, but it has handsomely finished what other began, and it shall be awarded the glory. Personally. I rejoice in it, and even in its mistakes.

Now the most spectacular symptom of the new spirit is the revival and the full democratisation of dancing. The latest generation certainly did not initate the revival, which began long before the war in the formation of private dance clubs, whose fault was a ridiculous snobbishness. What the latest generation did was to seize on to a good thing, to exploit it fully, and to tear it free of the chains of convention, and to expose it to all the antiseptic winds of publicity.

It is to the demands of the latest generation that we owe the public dance halls which are among the most impressive, beautiful and healthy phenomena of modern social life. Not that the dance halls are the recent invention of the middle class in London and the great provincial centers, as some might assume.

TERPSICHOREAN ART

Dance halls flourished mightily even in the last century in a few of the most popular seaside resorts, and especially at Blackpool and Douglas, Isle of Man. In these considerable pleasure cities there were dance halls before the latest generation was born, and before the fox trot and the shimmy had been conceived. The halls were efficiently managed, with few but rigidly inforced rules; they had good music; they were bright and even glittering, and they were cheap.

They did, as they still do, enormous business, and were largely responsible for the popularity of the two places named. Years and years ago I used to watch them functioning with amazement and delight, and I wondered that they did not attract attention from students of social phenomena. True, in those days, students of social phenomena had not yet removed their blinkers!

But the halls were naturally closed for the greater part of the year, appealing exclusively to holiday-makers in definite seasons of holiday, which depended on weather conditions and on the caprices of railway companies. It never occurred to me, and I doubt if it occurred to anyone, that plain people might care to dance publicly on the evenings of working-days, or that sea-air was not absolutely essential to dancing, or that it was not necessary to travel a hundred miles in order to enjoy a dance, or that the desire to dance, like the desire to eat, drink, and love, might possibly be quite independent of all seasons whatever.

These great discoveries came later, and they did not come through the dance-halls of the industrial class, which dance-halls were regarded by the other classes as amusingly vulgar. The industrial class had indeed started public dancing on a scale undreamed of by Cremorne and Ranelagh, and with vastly more decorum; but the industrial class only found out that dancing might be just as delectable in Winter as in Summer through its habit of imitating the classes above it.

THE DANCING "CRAZE"

The dancing "craze," as it is unjustly described, percolated both downwards and upwards through the strata of society, and to-day there is no class which does not dance, and probably no class which objects to be seen dancing in public or in semi-public.

That which once was amusingly vulgar is now strictly correct—and still amusing. Halls, clubs, and subscription organisations exits everywhere in which individuals may dance in a crowd consisting mainly of individuals personally unknown to them.

The entertainment is one at which every spectator is also a performer—and not merely a performer but an ecstatic, thrilled, and joyous performer. The resulting spectacle is unique, in addition to being grand. It is inspiring.

It means the public and frank re-establishment of joy and ecstasy. And incidentally it shows how indestructible are the most ancient human instincts. The dance is probably older than anything except eating, drinking and love.

The curious and convenient thing is that dancing provides joy and ecstasy and the uplifting of the soul, and at the same time does positive moral, artistic and physical good to the dancer. It has practically none of the disadvantages which accompany other forms of diversion and exercise and discipline.

NO CAUSE FOR SHOCK

You can get ecstasy out of a bottle of champagne or even a glass of beer (not to speak of six glasses), but the uplifting is no finer than what the dance affords it is in fact less fine, and it has grave drawbacks, some of which may not be noticed for years and some of which are very apt to be noticed the next morning.

Again, dancing is a physical exercise quite as efficacious as, and far less tedious than, the ingenious contortions prescribed by training experts. Its effects upon the action of the skin is excellent; it develops the muscles; it renders the body lissome; and it fosters gracefulness of carriage. Further, it cannot fail to teach rhythm; a highly important matter which most citizens would remain quite ignorant of if they did not dance. The mere discipline of moving accurately to music is very valuable; and so is the discipline of coordinating one's movements with the movements of another person.

In nearly all these repects modern dancing is probably superior to the dancing of earlier centuries, which was much slower and which certainly was not calculated to induce ecstasy. Modern dancing would have shocked the eighteenth century, and yet the eighteenth century was more cynical and less moral than ours.

Finally, in the catalogue of dancing's merits, there is the fact that, unlike golf and such crudities, it is practised when people are in their best and prettiest clothes and on their best behavior.

To sum up, I would say that the "craze" for dancing is a truly healthy and hopeful sign of these times which are so rich in doubtful and sinister signs.

I shall not let my enthusiasm carry me into the clouds. Public dancing has its evil side. No! Not the side which is perhaps in our minds, and the existence of which I do not for a moment credit! I mean it keeps its devotees up too late.

The law ordains a certain hour for closing public resorts and clubs, but the law makes frequent exceptions, and moreover there are well-known devices for evading the law. I am not an advocate of early dancing; I have no use for afternoon dancing, and assuredly I do not believe in dancing between the courses of dinner.

But I think that people ought to know when to go home, and that too many of them, even if they do know, lack the moral fibre to act on their knowledge.

Dancers who go home at 3 a.m. must cheat either themselves or somebody else the next day; for there are not and never will be twenty-seven hours in a day. The disadvantage is real; it is serious; and every effort should be made to minimise it.

In regard to the actual art of dancing as exemplified to-day in public and semi-public ballrooms, it may be said to be full of interesting problems, the solution of one or two of which may ultimately split the dancing world into two camps. Perhaps to many people—especially people with plenty of money in their pockets—the really acute problem, quite unconnected with the art of dancing, is where to find a hall or club that on the one hand is not so fashionably packed that you can't move, or, on the other hand is not so unfashionably and forlornly empty that you feel as if you were assisting at a memorial service for the death of dancing.

HEEL AND TOE ETHICS

Another problem, purely artistic and technical, is to decide whether men should dance on their heels or their toes. There may be serious trouble over this. Only a little while ago the existence of the problem would have been unthinkable. Everybody has to dance on his toes, and on the floor of the ballroom nobody could even admit that he posessed heels.

But today one may witness the finest male dancers continually using their heels in preference to their toes, and defending the practice on the ground that it gives a better balance and a quicker turn, and also that that it enables the feminine feet to get closer to the masculine feet; and apparently the inmost secret of good dancing is that the feminine and masculine feet should never, never leave each other.

A great problem, of a moral or political nature, now just simmering up, is raised by the question:

"Why should the man always absolutely rule the dance?"

There is no answer to this question, except to say that women have ever been in subjection and therefore must ever be; which answer is possibly not quite satisfactory.

In any dance of two persons, one of the pair must of course be autocrat, but why should not the pair exchange roles at intervals?

Women know as much about dancing as men, and numbers of them could certainly direct the mutual movements quite as well as the men with whom they dance. I am surprised that our more advanced feminists have not made a fuss about such a fundamental affair long since.

But the problem of problems is the admitted monotony of modern dancing. A few weeks ago I beheld with amazement the program of a ball at Buckingham Palace. With the exception of the formal opening grand quadrille and the final gallop, every dance was a waltz.

There were about twenty waltzes one after the other. But a fox-trot! As for a one-step . . . ! As for a tango . . . . !

It may have been held, and perhaps wisely, that words such as "fox-trot" would not look nice on the pasteboards of a Buckingham Palace ball. But even in other ballrooms the programs are monotonous.

ONE-STEP IN DISFAVOR

The one-step has fallen into disfavor, and rightly so, for it is a tenth-rate business. Programs are divided in the main between fox-trots and waltzes, and though the waltz is a finer dance than the fox-trot, the fox-trot is still very fine, being easier than the waltz and better adapted for variations, it exceeds the waltz in popularity. The mischief is that the steps of the two dances are identical. Again the authorities who govern and judge competitions will not permit any sort of stung effects—and who shall blame them? So that there is in practice almost no lawful outlet for the human yearning after change and variety.

Efforts are being made to popularise the tango in London. There is only one waltz, but there are seventy and seven tangos, and the tango is a great dance, with the magnificent rhythm of the fox-trot, but rather slower; and if you knew enough you might dance tangoes for a whole evening and scarcely repeat your figures.

But I do not see much of a future for the tango. The tango is growing old. It has been the rage of Paris, where every second dance was and is a tango; but what has been the rage of Paris is not destined to long life in the rest of the world.

Nor do I think that any form of the square or the round dance will return in our time. Though the custom of one couple sticking together for a whole season may slowly disappear—and I hope it will, for it has a malign influence upon the woman's dancing and renders the male dancer even more self-centered than he ordinarily is—dancing must necessarily remain an "intimacy of two in public."

Dancing cannot be really popular unless it is public, for not one person in a hundred thousand possesses a ball room, and square and round dances are impossible at a public dance. What is more, they are not so interesting to performers as the couple-dance.

The great need of the age is a new step, with new figures, capable of many variations within a few clear rules. Such a novelty, combined with the fox-trot and the waltz, would remove the reproach of monotony.

TEXACOAT
the Asphaltic Paint

Use Texacoat anywhere that rust need be avoided. It is a liquid asphaltic coating which forms a tough and durable weather-proof skin over any surface to which applied, filling in crevices where rust has started. Use it on metal or composition roofing, structural steel, smokestacks, or any other like surface. You may experiment freely because Texacoat contains no ingredients harmful to wood, metal or concrete.

Texacoat is weatherproof because it is made of asphalt one of Nature's most effective water-proofing minerals. It will protect any surface from the action of weather, moisture, chemical fumes, salt air fumes, gas or smoke.

Keep a pail of Texacoat handy—it is easily applied with a brush, the same as any paint. Frequent use will save you money.

SILK —
Was first cultivated in China 4000 years ago.
For centuries have the picturesque sampans, with their costly cargoes of silk slowly made their way down the Yangzte-kiang to the sea.
15 per cent of this Silk is exported to the United States which figure is increasing yearly.
In June the United States consumed 30,877 Bales of Silk.
It is the only manufacturing material that has not shown a decreased consumption in the past year.
The proper handling and financing of these cargoes is an important factor in the development of this trade.
THE ASIA BANKING CORPORATION
SHANGHAI
offers every facility for moving such cargoes.

Hankow Market

The British Chamber of Commerce of Hankow write as follows in their weekly circular dated Hankow, September 28:
FINANCE & MONEY MARKET.
The price of Bar Silver in London has advanced 3⅛d. both for ready and forward delivery, the respective quotations on 27th inst. being 43⅜d. and 43⅛d. India and China have been in evidence as buyers. The market is quoted as steady at the higher level with scarcity of supplies. The stock of silver in Shanghai on 22nd inst. was estimated to be Tls. 32,542,000 and $35,100,000. Exchange quotations advanced on 23rd inst. to T.T. 3/11⅛d. but the market has ruled very firm and there have been sellers for ready and near delivery at a premium of 4⅞d. The latest New York/London cross rate to hand is 373½. Chinese Market Rates: Shanghai Taels 96.8%. Local Currency $70.4 Native Interest 5½ percent.
EXPORTS
There is very little change to report. Business has come to a standstill owing to adverse exchange rates, despite which Tael prices remain very firm. Arrivals of produce of all kinds are small particularly Wood Oil and Seeds and this is largely the reason for the present high price level.
IMPORTS
Piece Goods:—The market remains firm. Some forward goods have been sold for arrival this year. Stock goods are in demand and clearances are excellent. Yarn: — Clearances brisk.

Hongkong Share Market

Messrs. Maxon and Taylor of Hongkong write as follows in their share report dated Hongkong, September 30.
We have had a firm market during the week under review, with a good deal of business passing, and a considerable rise in some stocks.
Hongkong Banks, (old shares), have declined a little owing to the rise in exchange but a few shares have changed hands. New shares, (£35 paid) have been in good demand, but few shares offering.
The Shanghai Market, has been quiet generally with very little doing since the settlement.
Rubber continues stagnant.
The following are the chief alterations since last week.
Hongkong Banks: (Old shares), have changed hands to a small extent at $700 and $705. New shares, have had a smart rise owing to the rise in exchange, and close in good demand with buyers at $440.
Cantons: Are wanted at $405.
Unions: Have also been affected by the rise in exchange, and close with sales at $220.
Hongkong Docks: Are quiet at $191.
China Sugars: Have been the medium of a fair amount of business, and have risen smartly, closing with buyers at $190.
Cements: Have also firmed up and are wanted at $17½.
Hongkong Lands: Had a smart rise, and close with buyers at $211.
Humphreys: Are steady at $10¾.
Shanghai Docks: Have eased off a little and close with buyers at Tls. 120.
Shell Transports: Have been the medium of a certain amount of business round about 9/-.
